—A first year student contributes yet another box to the pile outside of Prosser Hall.

—The cars line up to drop off First Year Students to unload their possessions at their assigned dormitories.

On August 22, 1998, the class of 2001 began their first year at Muhlenberg College. The First Year students combined their unique characteristics to create a diversity and style all of their own. It was not long after their three day orientation that the diverse group of students began friendships that would grow and become stronger day by day. Being thrown into a new environment, students quickly adjusted to their situation and grew more independent and comprehensive of their purpose at Muhlenberg. With a combination of their characteristics, the students can learn from each other and make a difference in the future.

The Women's Soccer team completed this years season with a record of 10-6-2 (6-3 in the Centennial Conference). This season, the Mules tied the school record for the number of wins in a season. The team was led by Tri-Captains: Denise Diorio, Laurie Kennedy, and Jackie Vanderstreet. Junior Celina Boer set a school record with the number of goals that she scored this season, while Junior Tri-Captain Jackie Vanderstreet set another school record for her goal-tending.

—Captain Jackie Vanderstreet is trying her hardest for the other team not to score.

—Celina Boer knows that the only way she will obtain the ball is to be aggressive.

—Lisa Wojtowicz, showing remarkable skill, maneuvers the ball away from her opponent.

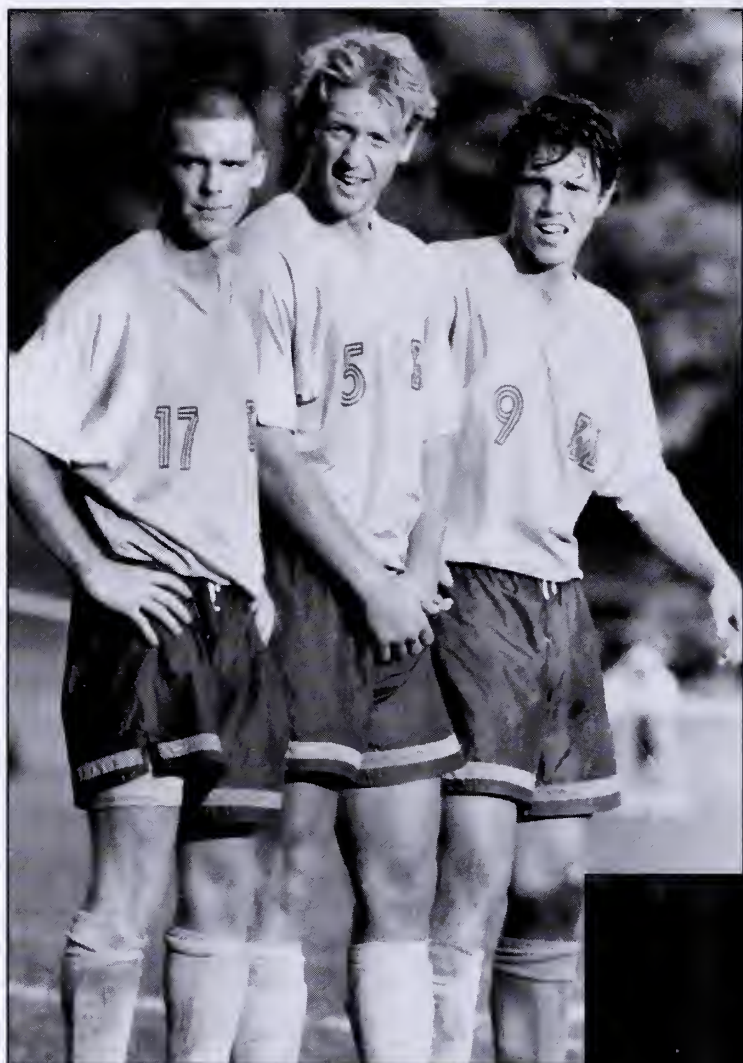

—Captain Denise Diorio tries to make a pass while pushing her opponent away. Her spirit will be missed next year.

—Captain Laurie Kennedy is on breakaway down the field. Laurie's leadership will be missed next year.

*A*nother great Muhlenberg soccer season came to an end with a final record of 16-5-1 (8-0-1 in the Centennial Conference, earning the title of Centennial Conference Champions.) The team advanced to the Division III Mid-Atlantic Region championship, which ended in a 2-1 overtime loss to Gettysburg. This season, the Mules were led by Co-Captains Mike Schaffer and Sean Topping, along with Coach Jeff Tipping. Seniors Todd Ervin and Eric Hohman played major roles in leading the team to its rank of second place in the region. Ervin finished his collegiate career as Muhlenberg's seventh all-time leading scorer with 90 points.

The Mules ended their Volleyball season with a 15-10 record — their seventh consecutive season with double digits in wins. The team finished one game out of the running for the first Centennial Conference playoffs and came in second at the Wesleyan Invitational. The team was led by Co-Captains Lauren Buyyounouski and Kimberly Maurer, along with the coaching of Mike Krause. Seniors Nicole Goscilo and Rebecca Lebo were also noted throughout the season for their superb performances.

—Quarterback, George Fosdick, passes the ball in hopes for a successful play.

—Muhlenberg Football exemplifies their ability to be supportive toward one another.

The Muhlenberg Football team had an eventful season despite their final record of 1-9 (1-6 in the Centennial Conference). The team was led by five Senior Captains: George Fosdick, Dave Johnson, Jason Novak, Paul Peri, and Jim Socci. Fosdick completed his collegiate career with 2,324 passing yards, the second-best total in Muhlenberg history. With a roster that includes fourteen Seniors, the Mules are entering the upcoming season with a young, but talented team.

—Patrick Shelley tries to push away the opponents, as Jason Brader advances the ball.
 —Jason Novak uses his blocking skills to stop his opponent.
 —There is no way this Muhlenberg Football defense will let their opponent gain yardage.

The Muhlenberg cheerleading squad is an integral part of the varsity sports program at the College. They provide spirit and enthusiasm at all football and men's basketball games, helping to get the crowd into the game and cheering for our team. Through many hours of practice and dedication, the cheerleaders have perfected their many routines. Their intensity and energy is enough to please any crowd! Even when the Mules are falling behind, the cheerleaders keep the crowd's spirit up. Through the leadership of Captains Georgette Weaver and Barbara Hinski, the cheerleaders soared through the year.

—Co-Captain, Jill Roth, exemplified her leadership throughout the season.

—Support from the bench is always needed.

The Women's Basketball Team had a rewarding season that ended with a record of 18-10 (11-4 in the Centennial Conference). The team was led by Tri-Captains Senior Lisa Clarke, Junior Sarah Clarke, and Junior Jill Roth, as well as the coaching of Tammy Smith. The four Seniors on the team, Lauren Krakowski, Sue Carney, Sarah Bedi, and L. Clarke each played major roles throughout the season, and have each earned three Varsity letters throughout their collegiate careers. Bedi has scored over 800 points and pulled down over 500 rebounds during her time on the team. The Mules were the Scotty Wood Tournament Champions, and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. All-in-all, the 1997-1998 Women's Basketball team had a successful season, setting standards for the years to come.

- Jessica Drennan defends her opponent.

The Muhlenberg Men's Basketball Team was led this season by Senior Captains Matt Henrich and Michael Queenan, as well as the coaching of Dave Madeira. The final record for the season was 17-10 (10-3 in the Centennial Conference). Queenan, playing in his last collegiate season, finished as the school's 19th all-time leading scorer, with 1,094 points. The Mules were the Scotty Wood Tournament Champions, and advanced to the first round of the NCAA Tournament. The three Graduating Seniors in the roster, Jeff Graham, Queenan, and Henrich will be missed next season, as they were assets to the team.

The Mules crowned two individual championships at the Centennial Conference Championships. For the second time in three years, junior Jeff Thiel captured the gold in shot put. His throw of 47 feet, 6 1/2 inches set a meet record, shattering the previous mark by more than two inches. Freshman, Katrina Beck, with all of three meet under her belt, won the high jump with a leap of 5 feet, two inches, dethroning the reigning champion. The team had a stellar year.

The Muhlenberg wrestling team had improved on its 1996-97 showing even before the first takedown of the new season had been recorded. Head Coach Tom Schleicher recruited a full team and kept to a minimum the number of points the Mules had to forfeit at each dual meet. And although many of the freshmen struggled during the 7-12 season, the veterans turned in solid performances. Sophomore Chuck Richard extended Muhlenberg's record of Centennial Conference champions to 15, capturing the heavyweight title with a two-point decision and a one-point decision. Sophomore Jason McLean tied a school record with 28 wins and advanced the CC title bout at 126 pounds. He also won the King's Monarch Tournament and placed third in the NCAA East Regional Qualifier, missing out on second place and a possible national tournament berth by two points. Junior 150-pounder Craig Farris was 22-11 and finished third at the CC meet and fifth at the qualifier meet. Among the freshman, Brett Rackoff (118) had the most wins (17). He and Dan Ochoa (167) were both fourth place finishers.

The Muhlenberg Softball Team came with its battery included in 1998. Junior catcher Elizabeth Billie (.374 batting average, 26 RBI, First-Team All-Region) and sophomore pitcher Heather Dreby (13-11, 2.54 ERA, 149 Innings pitched) were the center of attention for most of the season and led the Mules to a 16-21 record against an extremely tough schedule that included 11 games against NCAA tournament teams. 'Berg defeated two of those teams (Messiah and William Patterson) as Dreby pitched a 4-hitter and a 6-hitter and Billie drove in the go-ahead run in both games. The team also enjoyed record-setting performances from juniors Carey Hilton (81 career RBI) and Ali Hatola (68 career and 27 stolen bases.)

Senior first baseman Steve Faella entered the final day of his collegiate baseball career with 92 hits and managed 7 hits in his first eight at-bats against two undefeated pitchers from Johns Hopkins, the fourth ranked team in Division III. Alas, he hit routine grounders in his final two at-bats and had to settle with 99 career hits. That was the season in a nutshell for the Mules, who too often came up short of their goals. With eighteen freshman on the roster and seven in the everyday line-up, the team gained valuable experience that should pay off in future years. Faella (.373), sophomore center-fielder Chuck Draper (.358, 23 RBI) and sophomore designated hitter Chris Moriatis earned All-CC honors.

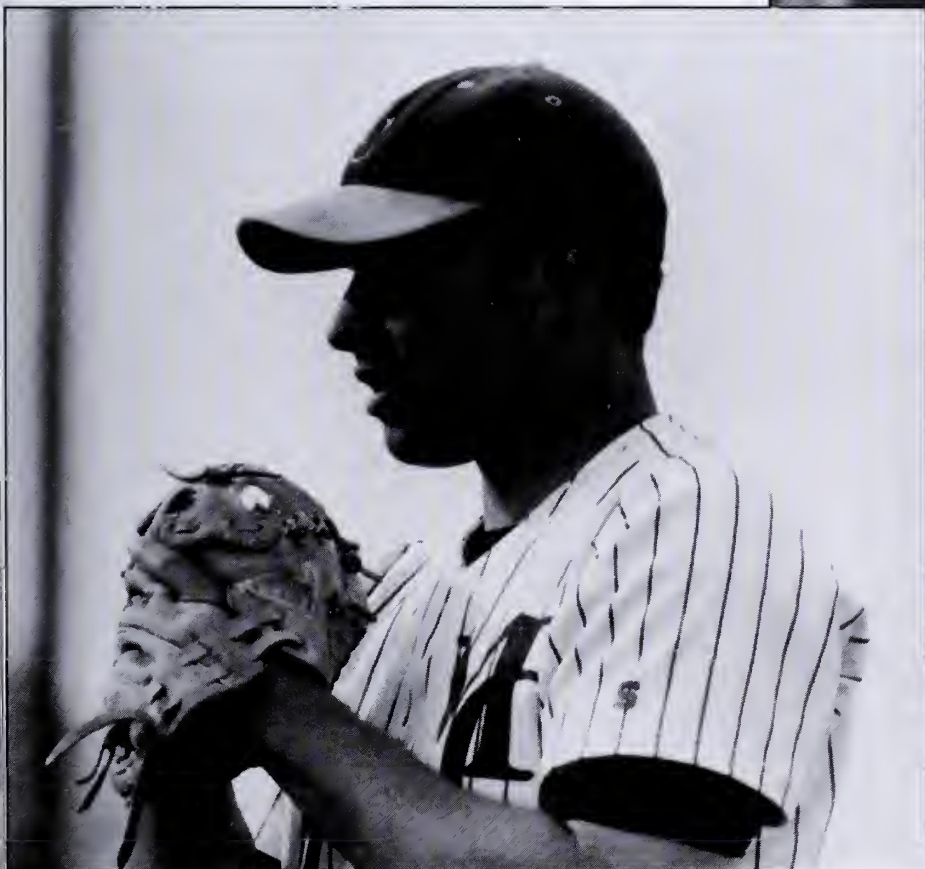

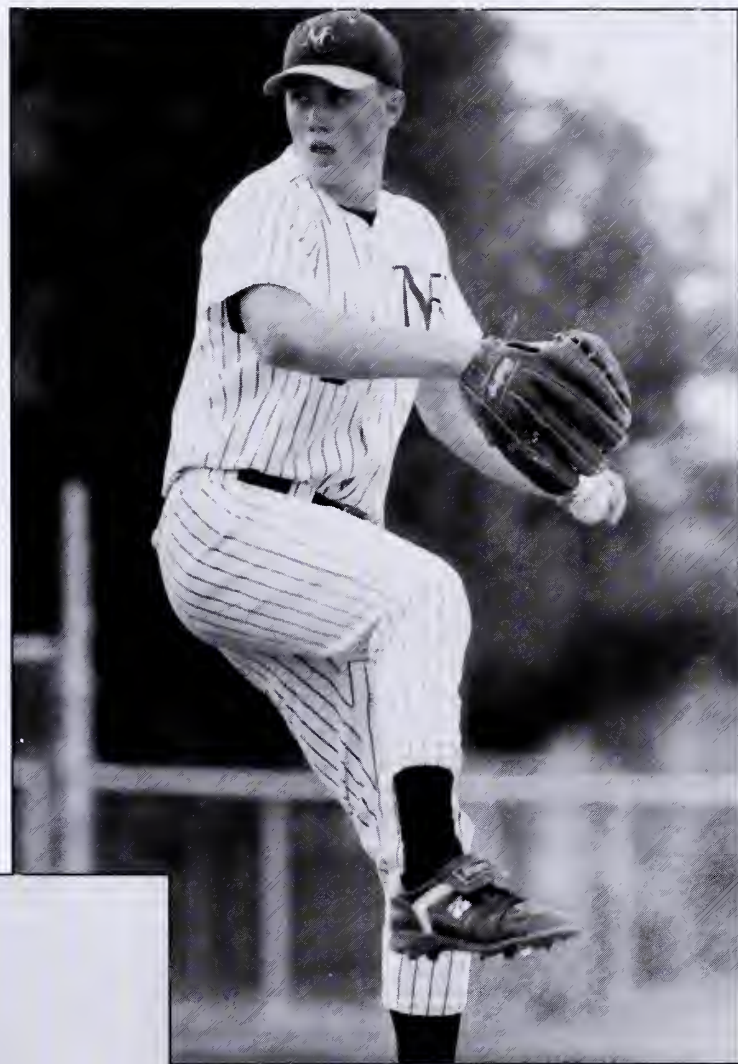

- It doesn't matter how you catch the baseball, as long as you do!
- Chuck Draper gets ready for the perfect pitch.
- You need to be determined before you pitch.

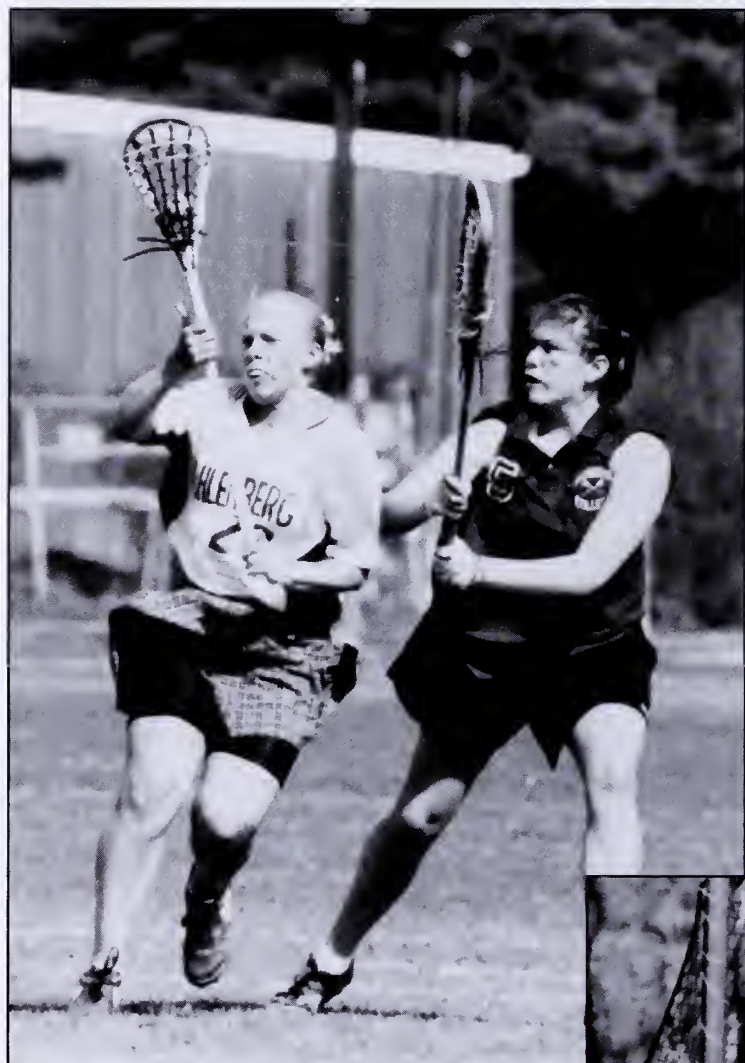

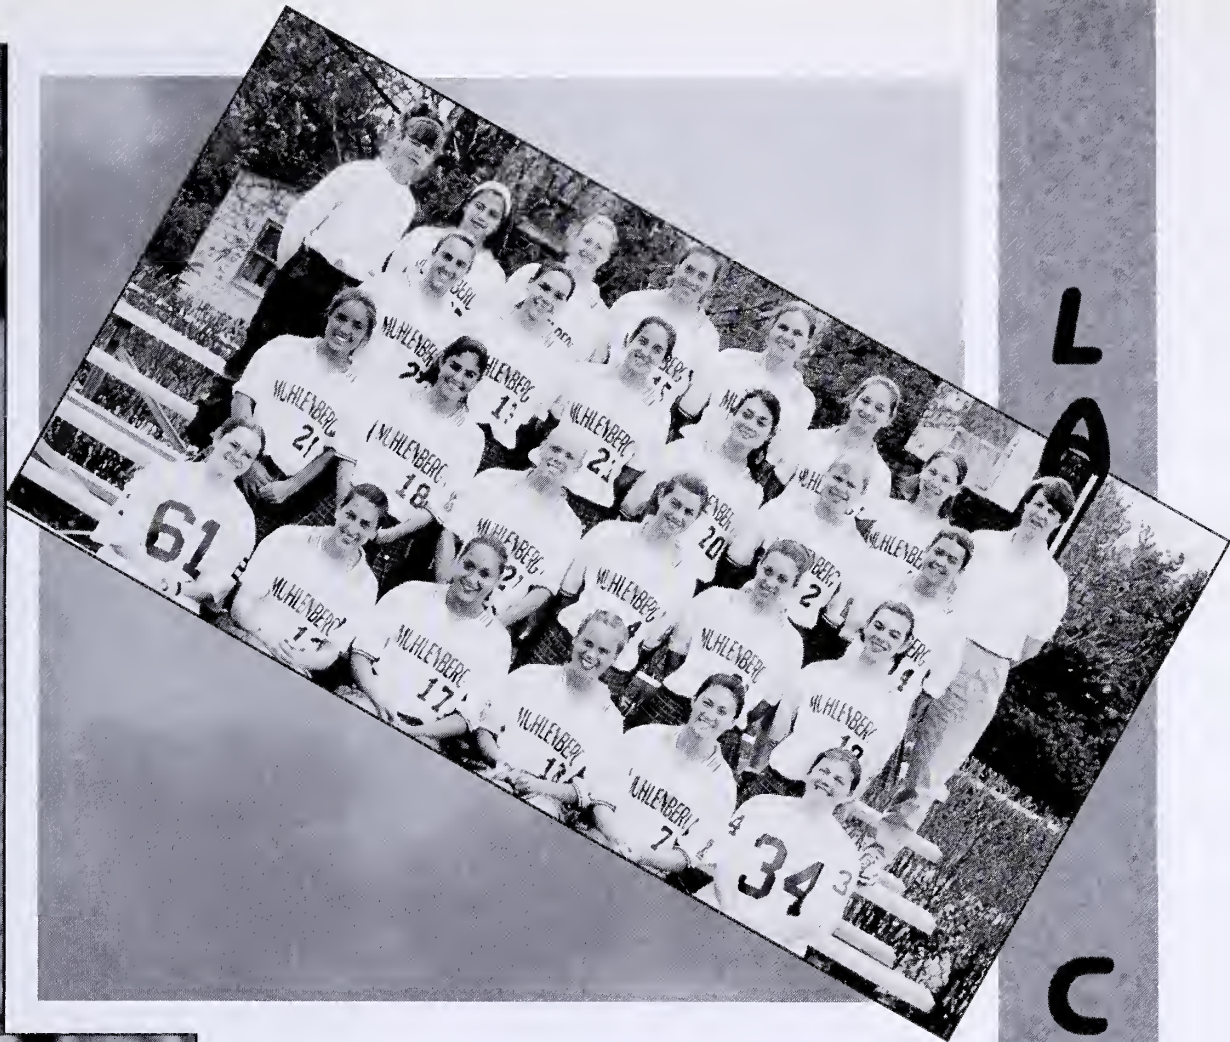

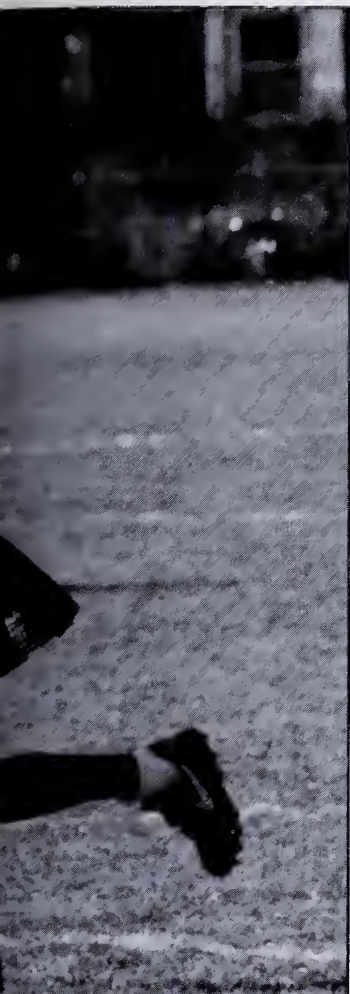

—Seth Weinstein winds up for a powerful pitch.
—A catcher needs to be prepared for anything.

In 1997, it was defense that led the lacrosse team to a school record of seven wins. This spring, an inability to keep the opponents off the scoreboard was the main culprit in a 3-12 season. An encouraging sign was that the Mules were playing better at the end of the season than at the beginning, winning three of their final four home games, including 20-19 sudden-death overtime thriller against Bryn Mawr. Senior Amanda Sciarra, a second-team All-Region choice, led the team in ground balls and draw controls, while junior Katie Kenny scored her 100th career goal and set a school record with seventeen assists. Miruna Lovin's 40 points set a freshman scoring record.

John,

Congratulations Son.... We love you very much and certainly are very proud of all the wonderful things you have done — but most importantly for just being you. The next phase of your life is soon to begin. We are sure that you will embrace it with the same vigor, commitment and good common sense that you have always shown. Just continue to be yourself.... you have the right combination of everything one needs to be happy — and John, that's what life is all about. We love you and wish nothing but the best for you.

With all our love,
Mom and Dad

John,

We are so very proud of you and all that you have accomplished. As you go forward, remember four things. First, always be yourself. You are a special person and have so much to share with everyone. Second, never be afraid to do what makes you happy. That is true success. Third, always aspire for better but be happy with what you have. Last and most important, you have a family who loves you and will always be there to support you in whatever you do. Congratulations....we hope all of your dreams come true.

With love,
Al and Melissa

“WELL DONE”

from your Family

The greatest force in the human body is the natural drive of the body to heal itself but that force is not independent of the belief system, which can translate expectations into physiological change. Nothing is more wondrous about the fifteen billion neurons in the human brain than their ability to convert thoughts, hopes, ideas, and attitudes into chemical substances. Everything begins therefore with belief. What we believe is the most powerful of all.

Marcy S. Emanuel

The wonderful time, the most joyous time of the year has come...graduation...the sun is high in the sky...the air is free and fresh, soft and clear. On the campus are the first sprouts of spring grass, tender, quivering, green...With a screech and a flutter of wings, a straight line of swallows flies overhead, and I am reminded of the Song of Songs. "The rains are over and gone, the blossoms have appeared in the land...Arise my darling. My fair one, come away." Marcy, time is life. Seize it as if you have every right to it, like air, take it in, hold it, expand it to be moved by its multiple scents, shape it to your dreams, or it will wisp away out of control and disappear. May your life be blessed with peace and happiness.

With our hearts bursting with pride,

Love,

Mom, Dad and Cory

Dearest Degreed Darling Daughter Dora,
The diamond has been out dazzled,
The dreadful dragon dare not dwell outside his
    deey, dark, dank dungeon,
Darling daughter Dora you dazzle more brilliantly than ever,
No diamond dare out shine you,
    for it was never the diamond D,
    it has always been you.
Go out and dazzle the world.

leap and conquer the world. We are Proud.

Love,
Mom, Dad and John

It seems like yesterday that you were so small
 But hey, let's face it, you're still not so tall
 But inside you've grown and matured quite a bit
 And become a great person that's fun to be with
 And made us all proud of your Muhlenberg days
 As you've found great success in so many ways
 And now it begins, that thing we call life
 We know you'll succeed as you've done all your life

All Our Love... Mom & Dad

Congratulations, Jas!

We are very happy for you today! It has been a true gift for us to have you in our lives. Our hearts have been with you in all you've done and we rejoice with you and are very proud of your many accomplishments. The future is yours! Best of health, happiness and success in all your dreams!

We Love you,
 Mom & Dad

Mike, Mike, Tairo and Eric —

Great four years!

Good Luck!

From the gang in Landenberg

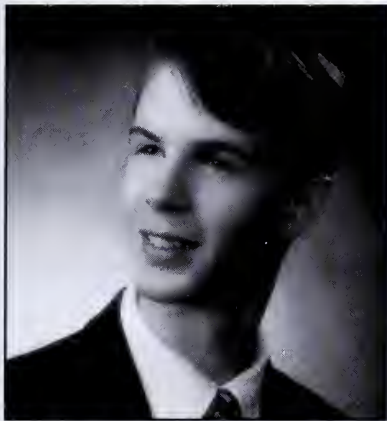

Laura —

You've had another great year. We are proud of you and we all wish the best for you.

Love,

Mom, Dad, Amy and Carolyn

Kevin — It seems like only yesterday we were waiting in line to move you into Prosser Hall and here it is, the end of your freshman year...where has the time gone? Keep studying and keep your eyes on the mountain just ahead of you for, for you have what it takes to climb to the top of that mountain. We're very proud of you and all your accomplishments. Good luck in your next three years at the 'Berg.

Love,

Mom, Dad and Megan

Dear Regina,

Congratulations! We hope this graduation will bring you cheer as you prepare for what will be a wonderful future.

CIARLA

THE COLOPHON

---

Volume 106 of Ciarla, the Muhlenberg College's 1998 yearbook, was printed by Taylor Publishing Company, 1550 West Mockingbird Lane, Dallas, Texas. Representing Taylor Publishing, Ed Patrick, Jr. served as our local yearbook sales representative and Liz Hernandez served as our account executive.

The cover of Ciarla 1998 was originally designed by Mitzi Stein, former Editor-in-Chief, and finalized by the Taylor Publishing art department. The cover is leather embossed with a customized stamped foil. Paper stock of 80lb. enamel was used throughout the entire book. All layouts were done using a 16 column method. Most headlines are a combination of 48/48 rinna and 48/48 reporter; body copy is 15/17 or 12/14 rinna; captions are 10/12 rinna italic; panels are 8/9 malibu bold; and folios are 12/12 brush.

Portraits were taken by Merin Studios, Inc., 2981 Grant Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, 19114, as well as the majority of the candid shots. Merin's representative to Ciarla was Steve Merin. Mike Falk and the Muhlenberg College Public Relations Department supplied both sports and general campus photographs.

Volume 106 of Ciarla is 256 pages in length. 600 copies were ordered, 450 for the graduating seniors, 30 for administrators and departments of Muhlenberg College, and 120 ordered by underclassmen. The total publishing cost for Ciarla 1998 was approximately $29,000.00. All layout and copy work was done using UltraVision for Windows by Taylor Publishing. The office of Ciarla is located in the basement of Prosser Hall. The office telephone number is 610-821-3237. All correspondence should be sent to Ciarla, Box 2762, Muhlenberg College, 2400 West Chew Street, Allentown, PA 18104-5596.

A LETTER FROM THE ALUMNI ADVISOR

7his yearbook, Ciarla 1998, symbolizes the apathy that continues to fester and spread at Muhlenberg College. After coming out from underneath an enormous debt in 1993 caused by apathetic students and administrators, Muhlenberg College was postured to publish a high-quality and memorable yearbook with dedicated and loyal leadership. This held true for three years under my leadership (from 1993 to 1996) and under the leadership of Mitzi Stein in 1997. Unfortunately, Mitzi was unable to manage the 1998 yearbook. Mitzi was forced to resign from her position in March of 1999 after numerous discussions between Jenifer Lembo, Mike Bruckner, Rudy Ehrenberg, Student Council and me. At this point in time, more than 75% of the book was yet to be finished. The majority of this yearbook was scraped together by Jenifer Lembo, Ed Patrick, Jr. and me during the month of March; the time, resources, and help were not available for the publication of (what I consider) a quality yearbook. I will not, however, apologize for the quality of this book. If not for Jenifer Lembo and me, this yearbook would have never been published.

The near failure of the 1998 yearbook is directly related to your involvement. I have served as the Ciarla Alumni Advisor for three years. During this time, I found that the College administration, the Student Council, and the students did not support the publication of the yearbook or involve themselves in its publication to ensure it would be completed. For the students that graduated in 1998, please recognize the necessity to become involved in your community, whether it be "The Muhlenberg Community" or a community out in the "real world." I had four unforgettable years here, and this is why I continue to involve myself as an alum. I am sure that you had four equally unforgettable years; all the more reason to stay involved as an alum here at the 'Berg. For the current Muhlenberg students.....GET INVOLVED! There is a tremendous amount of leadership needed on campus; there is a tremendous amount of change needed on campus; GET INVOLVED!

Dan Halewicz

Ciarla Alumni Advisor
